Planning (Consequential Provisions) (Wales) Bill

[AS INTRODUCED]

An Act of Senedd Cymru to make minor and consequential amendments and repeals of enactments for the purposes of the Planning (Wales) Act 2026 and the Historic Environment (Wales) Act 2023, and for connected purposes.

Having been passed by Senedd Cymru and having received the assent of His Majesty, it is enacted as follows:

1 Meaning of “the principal Act”

In this Act “the principal Act” means the Planning (Wales) Act 2026.

2 Minor and consequential amendments and repeals

- (1) Schedules 1 to 4 contain minor and consequential amendments (including repeals) in connection with the principal Act and the Historic Environment (Wales) Act 2023 (asc 3).
- (2) Schedule 1 contains amendments to the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (c. 8).
- (3) Schedule 2 contains amendments to other Acts of the Parliament of the United Kingdom.
- (4) Schedule 3 contains amendments to Assembly Measures and Acts of Senedd Cymru.
- (5) Schedule 4 contains amendments to other legislation.
- (6) For the purposes of any reference in Schedule 1, 2 or 3 to whether another enactment is in force —
 - (a) the question of whether the enactment is in force is to be determined at the time when the paragraph of Schedule 1, 2 or 3 containing the reference comes into force;
 - (b) if the enactment comes into force at the same time as the paragraph containing the reference, it is to be treated as having come into force immediately before that paragraph;
 - (c) the enactment is to be treated as not being in force if it is only in force so far as it confers a power to make subordinate legislation.
- (7) In those Schedules —

“LURA 2023” (“DFfBA 2023”) means the Levelling-up and Regeneration Act 2023 (c. 55);

“PIA 2025” (“DCS 2025”) means the Planning and Infrastructure Act 2025;

“PWA 2015” (“DCC 2015”) means the Planning (Wales) Act 2015 (anaw 4).

3 Transitional and saving provisions

Schedule 5 contains transitional and saving provisions in connection with the principal Act and this Act.

4 Power to make further provision in connection with the principal Act

- (1) The Welsh Ministers may by regulations made by Welsh statutory instrument –
 - (a) make provision that is incidental or supplementary to, or consequential on, any provision of the principal Act or this Act;
 - (b) make transitional or saving provision in connection with any provision of the principal Act or this Act.
- (2) Regulations under this section may amend, repeal or revoke any enactment, whenever enacted or made (including a provision of the principal Act or this Act).
- (3) Regulations under this section that amend or repeal any enactment contained in primary legislation are subject to the Senedd approval procedure.
- (4) Any other regulations under this section are subject to the Senedd annulment procedure.
- (5) In this section –

“enactment” (“deddfiad”) includes a provision of a Church of England Measure (within the meaning given by section 408 of the principal Act) or of an instrument made under such a Measure;

“primary legislation” (“deddfwriaeth sylfaenol”) means –

 - (a) an Act of Senedd Cymru,
 - (b) an Assembly Measure, or
 - (c) an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom.

5 Coming into force

- (1) The following provisions come into force on the day after the day this Act receives Royal Assent –
 - (a) section 1;
 - (b) section 2 so far as it relates to the provisions of Schedules 2 and 3 mentioned in paragraphs (f) and (g);
 - (c) section 4;
 - (d) this section;
 - (e) section 6;
 - (f) paragraphs 139(a), 153(a), 178(c), 180(c), 187(a) and 262(a) of Schedule 2;
 - (g) paragraphs 42, 47, 48, 50, 56(b), 60 to 63, 64(b) and 65 to 67 of Schedule 3.
- (2) So far as they are not brought into force by subsection (1), sections 2 and 3 and Schedules 1 to 5 come into force on a day appointed by the Welsh Ministers in an order made by Welsh statutory instrument.
- (3) An order under subsection (2) may make transitional or saving provision in connection with the coming into force of a provision brought into force by the order.

(4) If the fact that another enactment will or will not be in force on the day appointed by an order under subsection (2) means that a provision of Schedule 1, 2 or 3 will not take effect, the order may repeal that provision and make any other amendments to Schedules 1 to 5 that are consequential on the repeal.

5 (5) Nothing in this section limits, or is limited by, the powers conferred by section 4.

6 Short title

This Act may be referred to as —

- (a) the Planning (Consequential Provisions) (Wales) Act 2026, or
- (b) Deddf Cynllunio (Darpariaethau Canlyniadol) (Cymru) 2026.

“PART 3

MODIFICATIONS IN RELATION TO LAND IN WALES REFERRED TO IN SECTION 21(2)(A) OR (B)

- 20 1 This Part applies where, by virtue of section 21(1A), the provisions of the Planning (Wales) Act 2026 mentioned in this Part apply to land in Wales that is referred to in section 21(2)(a) or (b).
- 2 Sections 314, 315, 316, 320 and 321 of that Act apply as if the references in those sections to the authority that acquired or appropriated land were references to the special road authority.
- 25 3 Section 314(6) applies as if for the words from “any development” to “appropriated” there were substituted “any works in pursuance of the scheme or order, or as the case may be, ensuring that the highway can be safely used as a special road”.
- 30 4 Section 315(3) and paragraph 1(3)(c) of Schedule 18 apply as if the references to a local authority or a statutory undertaker included a reference to the special road authority, where it is a strategic highways company or a local highway authority.
- 35 5 Section 316(1)(c) and (2)(c) apply as if the references to development to be carried out on the land were references to the works to be carried out by the special road authority or, as the case may be, the effect of the conversion of the highway into a special road.
- 40 6 Section 316(4) applies as if the reference to the day the development starts were a reference to the day works commence or, as the case may be, the day the order by means of which the highway is appropriated by or transferred to the special road authority comes into force.

PART 4

MODIFICATIONS IN RELATION TO LAND IN WALES REFERRED TO IN SECTION 21(2)(C)

- 1 This Part applies where, by virtue of section 21(1A), the provisions of the Planning (Wales) Act 2026 mentioned in this Part apply to land in Wales that is referred to in section 21(2)(c).
- 2 Sections 314, 315, 317 and 321 of that Act apply as if the references in those sections to the authority that acquired or appropriated land were references to the Welsh Ministers, the strategic highways company, the special road authority or the local highway authority, as the case may be, by whom the order in question was made.
- 3 Section 314(6) applies as if for the words from “for the purpose of” to “appropriated” there were substituted “as a consequence of the works in connection with which the stopping up or diversion of the highway is or was authorised”.
- 4 Section 316(3) and paragraph 1(3)(c) of Schedule 18 apply as if the references to a local authority or a statutory undertaker included a reference to a strategic highways company or a local highway authority.
- 5 Section 316 applies –
 - (a) as if for subsections (1) to (4) there were substituted –
 - “(1) This section applies where –
 - (a) the stopping up or diversion of a highway is or was authorised by an order under section 14 or 18 of the Highways Act,
 - (b) there is apparatus belonging to a statutory undertaker on the land over which the highway subsists or subsisted, and
 - (c) the undertaker claims that, for technical or other reasons connected with the carrying on of its undertaking, the works in connection with which the stopping up or diversion of the highway is or was authorised require its apparatus to be removed or re-sited.
 - (2) This section also applies where –
 - (a) the stopping up or diversion of a highway is
or was authorised by an order under section
14 or 18 of the Highways Act 1980,
 - (b) there is electronic communications apparatus installed on the land on which the highway subsists or subsisted for the purposes of an electronic communications code network, and

(c) the operator of the network claims that, for technical or other reasons connected with the provision of the network, the works in connection with which the stopping up or diversion of the highway is or was authorised require its apparatus to be removed or re-sited.

(3) The undertaker or operator may serve on the Welsh Ministers, the strategic highways company, the special road authority or the local highway authority, as the case may be, by whom the order was made a notice claiming the rights to enter the land and carry out works specified in the notice for the removal or re-siting of the apparatus.

(4) A notice under subsection (3) must be served before the end of 21 days beginning with the later of the day the order in question comes into force or the day the works in connection with which the stopping up or diversion of the highway is or was authorised commence.”, and

(b) as if the references in subsection (9) to the authority that acquired or appropriated land were references to the Welsh Ministers, the strategic highways company, the special road authority or the local highway authority, as the case may be, by whom the order in question was made.”

153 In Schedule 6, in paragraph 2B –

(a) after sub-paragraph (3) insert –

“(3A) Subsections (2) and (3) of section 250 of the Local Government Act 1972 (evidence at local inquiries) apply in relation to a hearing under paragraph 2 in Wales as they apply (by virtue of section 302(1) of this Act) to a local inquiry under this Act.”;

(b) for sub-paragraph (4) (inserted by paragraph 3(c) of Schedule 5 to PWA 2015) substitute –

“(4) Sections 372 and 373 of the Planning (Wales) Act 2026 (costs) apply in relation to a hearing or local inquiry under paragraph 2 in Wales as they apply in relation to a hearing or local inquiry under that Act, but as if the references in section 373(2) and (3) to the Welsh Ministers were references to the Welsh Ministers or a person appointed by them under paragraph 2A(1) of this Schedule.”

SCHEDULE 5
(introduced by section 3)

PART 1

INTRODUCTORY AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

Interpretation

1 (1) In this Schedule—

- (a) “repealed enactment” means any enactment that is repealed by this Act;
- (b) references to repealing an enactment include excluding or limiting its application or effect (whether in relation to Wales or otherwise).

(2) In this Schedule—

“LURA 2023” (“DFfBA 2023”) means the Levelling-up and Regeneration Act 2023 (c. 55);

“NPA 2017” (“DCC 2017”) means the Neighbourhood Planning Act 2017 (c. 20);

“TCPA 1990” (“DCGTh 1990”) means the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (c. 8).

Relationship with Legislation (Wales) Act 2019

2 This Schedule applies in addition to sections 34 and 35 of the Legislation (Wales) Act 2019 (anaw 4) (general savings and effect of re-enactment) and does not limit the operation of those sections in connection with the repeal, revocation or re-enactment of any enactment by this Act or the principal Act.

Statutory and other references to principal Act etc.

3 (1) This paragraph applies to any reference (express or implied) in the principal Act or any other enactment, or in any other instrument or document, to—

- (a) a provision that is contained in the principal Act or inserted into any other enactment by this Act, or
- (b) anything done or to be done under or for the purposes of such a provision.

(2) In relation to any time when a corresponding provision of a repealed enactment (or of any earlier enactment) had effect, the reference is to be read as including a reference to—

- (a) the corresponding provision as it had effect at that time, or
- (b) things done or to be done under or for the purposes of that provision as it had effect at that time.

Documents referring to repealed enactments

- 4 (1) This paragraph applies to any reference to a repealed enactment that is contained in a document made, served or issued after the repeal of that enactment.
- 5 (2) Unless the context requires otherwise, the reference is to be read (according to the context) as referring to, or including a reference to, any corresponding provision that is –
- (a) contained in the principal Act, or
 - (b) inserted into any other enactment by this Act.

References to local authorities

- 5 (1) This paragraph applies to any reference to a local authority in –
- 10 (a) a provision of the principal Act, or
 - (b) any other enactment in which “local authority” has the meaning given by section 408(1) of that Act.
- (2) The reference is, in relation to any time before section 408(1) of the principal Act comes into force, to be read as referring to –
- 15 (a) any authority that was at that time a local authority within the meaning given by section 336(1) of TCPA 1990 (or by the corresponding provision of an earlier enactment that was in force at that time), and
 - (b) any other authority that was treated at that time as being a local authority for the purposes of –
- 20 (i) a provision of a repealed enactment (or of an earlier enactment that was in force at that time) corresponding to the provision of the principal Act containing the reference, or
 - (ii) the other enactment containing the reference.

References to statutory undertakers and statutory undertakings

- 25 6 (1) This paragraph applies to any reference to a statutory undertaker or a statutory undertaking in –
- (a) a provision of the principal Act, or
 - (b) any other enactment in which “statutory undertaker” or “statutory undertaking” has the meaning given by section 303 of that Act.
- 30 (2) A reference to a statutory undertaker is, in relation to any time before section 303 of the principal Act comes into force, to be read as referring to –
- (a) any person who was at that time a statutory undertaker within the meaning given by section 262(1) of TCPA 1990 (or by the corresponding provision of an earlier enactment that was in force at that time), and

(b) any other person who was treated at that time as being a statutory undertaker for the purposes of—

(i) a provision of a repealed enactment (or of an earlier enactment that was in force at that time) corresponding to the provision of the principal Act containing the reference, or

(ii) the other enactment containing the reference.

(3) A reference to a statutory undertaking is, in relation to any time before section 303 of the principal Act comes into force, to be read as referring to —

(a) any undertaking that was at that time a statutory undertaking within the meaning given by section 262(2) of TCPA 1990 (or by the corresponding provision of an earlier enactment that was in force at that time), and

(b) any other undertaking that was treated at that time as being a statutory undertaking for the purposes of—

(i) a provision of a repealed enactment (or of an earlier enactment that was in force at that time) corresponding to the provision of the principal Act containing the reference, or

(ii) the other enactment containing the reference.

Consents, determinations etc. under repealed enactments

(1) Nothing in any provision of the principal Act or this Act affects the validity or effect of—

(a) any permission, consent, agreement or approval that has been given, or treated as having been given, before the provision comes into force;

(b) any determination, direction, notice or order that has been made or issued before the provision comes into force.

(2) This paragraph does not limit any power conferred by the principal Act or any other enactment.

Criminal liability under repealed enactments

Nothing in the principal Act or this Act affects the operation of a repealed enactment in relation to an offence that was committed before its repeal or that is charged by reference to a period that began before its repeal.

SPECIFIC PROVISIONS

Survey of planning authority's area: transitory modification relating to English authorities

9 Until the insertion of section 15LG of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004 (c.
5 5) by Schedule 7 to LURA 2023 comes into force, section 18(4)(b) of the principal Act is to be read as if sub-paragraph (ii) were omitted.

Unitary development plans

10 (1) In article 3(1) of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004 (Commencement No. 6, Transitional Provisions and Savings) Order 2005 (S.I. 2005/2847), the reference to an 10 enactment mentioned in section 38(7) of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004
(c. 5) is to be read as a reference to any enactment in which references to the development plan for an area are to be interpreted in accordance with section 10 of the principal Act.

15 (2) The definition of “relevant development plan” in paragraph 1(2) of Schedule 19 to the principal Act (blighted land) is to be read as including a unitary development plan that continues to form part of the development plan for an area by virtue of article 3(1) and (2) of that Order.

Applications for planning permission for developments of national significance

11 (1) The amendments made to TCPA 1990 by Schedule 1 to this Act do not affect the operation of section 146(10) of the Infrastructure (Wales) Act 2024 (asc 3).

20 (2) Planning permission granted on an application under section 62D or 62F of TCPA 1990 as they continue to have effect by virtue of this paragraph is to be treated as permission granted under Part 3 of the principal Act.

Directions that planning permission is deemed to be granted

12 (1) Where an enactment refers to a direction under Chapter 8 of Part 3 of the principal Act 25 granting planning permission for the development of land in Wales, the reference is to be read as including a direction that such permission is deemed to be granted that has been given under section 90 of TCPA 1990 before that Chapter comes into force.

30 (2) Where an enactment refers to a direction under section 5 of the Pipe-lines Act 1962 (c. 58) that planning permission is granted for the development of land in Wales, the reference is to be read as including a direction that such permission is deemed to be granted that has been given under that section before paragraph 48 of Schedule 2 to this Act comes into force.

Purchase notices: transitory modifications relating to compulsory purchase

13 (1) Until section 183(2) and (3) of LURA 2023 are fully in force, section 110(7)(b)(i) of the 35 principal Act is to be read as if the words from “or (having been confirmed conditionally)” to the end were omitted.

- (2) Until paragraph 3 of Schedule 19 to LURA 2023 is fully in force, section 110(7)(b)(ii) of the principal Act is to be read as if the words from “or the order” to the end were omitted.

Purchase notices relating to land in National Parks

14 (1) This paragraph applies where, before sections 110 and 223 of the principal Act come into 5 force, a purchase notice has been served on a county council or county borough council in Wales in relation to land in a National Park.

- (2) In their application in relation to the notice, the following provisions of the principal Act are to be read as if references to a planning authority were references to the council on which the notice was served –

- 10 (a) section 376(9)(c);
(b) section 381(3) and (7);
(c) paragraphs 5, 6(10), 8(1) and 9 of Schedule 12.

Register of local development orders, planning applications etc.

15 15 The information that must be included in a register kept by a planning authority under section 111 of the principal Act includes any information that, immediately before that section came into force, the authority was required to include in a register under section 69 of TCPA 1990 by virtue of –

- 20 (a) paragraph 27(9) of Schedule 9 to the Post Office Act 1969 (c. 48) (development proposed by the Postmaster General: deemed planning permission);
(b) paragraphs 3 and 9(1) of Schedule 2 to the Planning and Compensation Act 1991 (c. 34) (old mining permissions: registration and determination of conditions);
(c) paragraph 4 of Schedule 4 to the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004 (c. 5) (development by or on behalf of the Crown: proposed development notices).

Compensation for loss or damage caused by stop notice issued by the Welsh Ministers

25 16 (1) This paragraph applies where –

- (a) an enforcement notice has been issued by the Welsh Ministers before section 152 of the principal Act comes into force, and
(b) a stop notice that relates to the enforcement notice has been served before that section comes into force, or a copy of such a stop notice is served after it comes into 30 force.

- (2) Section 152 of the principal Act applies to any claim for compensation relating to the stop notice as if the enforcement notice had been issued by the planning authority (and accordingly any compensation under that section is payable by the planning authority).

Tree preservation orders

35 17 (1) This paragraph applies where a tree preservation order is made before the relevant day in relation to trees, groups of trees or woodlands in Wales.

- (2) To the extent that the tree preservation order relates to individual trees, groups of trees or areas of trees –
 - (a) the order has effect, from the beginning of the relevant day, with the omission of all its provisions other than any that identify the order or the individual trees, groups of trees or areas of trees to which it relates or may in future relate, and
 - (b) the order is to be treated, from the beginning of the relevant day, as being a tree preservation order made under the principal Act.
- (3) To the extent that the tree preservation order relates to woodlands –
 - (a) the order has effect, from the beginning of the relevant day, with the omission of all of its provisions other than any that identify the order or the woodlands to which it relates, and
 - (b) the order is to be treated, from the beginning of the relevant day, as being a woodland preservation order made under the principal Act.
- (4) The reference in sub-paragraph (1) to a tree preservation order is a reference to an order made under, or which has effect as if made under, section 198(1) of TCPA 1990.
- (5) In this paragraph “relevant day” means the day on which Part 9 of the principal Act comes into force.

Acquisition of land: application of provisions to land held by the Welsh Ministers

- 18 For the purposes of Part 10 of the principal Act, land held by the Welsh Ministers that was 20 acquired by the National Assembly for Wales (established by the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38)) or by a Minister of the Crown before it was held by the Welsh Ministers is to be treated as having been acquired by the Welsh Ministers.

Highways orders: objections by National Park authorities

- 19 (1) For the purposes of paragraph 4(1) and (2) of Schedule 17 to the principal Act, an objection 25 made by a National Park authority before that Schedule comes into force is to be treated as an objection made by a person mentioned in paragraph 4(1)(a)(ii) of that Schedule.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph 13(2) and (3) of Schedule 17 to the principal Act, a representation or objection made by a National Park authority before that Schedule comes into force is to be treated as a representation or objection made by a person other than a 30 local authority.

Compensation relating to highways orders and statutory undertakers: application of time limits

- 20 (1) Subsection (3) of section 285 of the principal Act does not apply to a claim for compensation that relates to the stopping up of a means of access in pursuance of an order made before that section comes into force.
- 35 (2) Subsection (2) of section 319 of the principal Act does not apply to a claim for compensation that relates to a decision or order made before that section comes into force.

Blight notice in respect of land identified in relevant development plan

21 If a relevant development plan adopted or approved before the coming into force of section 12 of the Planning (Wales) Act 2015 (anaw 4) does not specify a period for which it is to have effect, the reference in section 326(5)(a)(i) of the principal Act to the end of the period 5 specified in the plan is to be read as a reference to the end of a period of 15 years from the date of the counter-notice.

Blighted land: transitory modifications relating to compulsory purchase

22 Until the provision mentioned in the first column of the Table is fully in force in relation to Wales, the modification of the principal Act set out in the corresponding entry in the 10 second column has effect.

Provision not fully in force for Wales	Modification of principal Act
Section 26(2) of NPA 2017	Sections 324(3)(c)(ii), 346(3)(d)(ii) and 348(3)(c)(ii) are to be read as if for “, 25 or 27” there were substituted “or 25”.
Section 26(3)(a) of NPA 2017	Section 326(2) is to be read as if paragraph (b) were omitted.
Section 26(3)(b) of NPA 2017	Section 326(9) is to be read as if the words “to take temporary possession of land compulsorily (in the case of land falling within paragraph 27 of Schedule 19)” were omitted.
Section 26(4) of NPA 2017	Section 333(3) is to be read as if, in the definition of “compulsory acquisition power”, paragraph (b) (and the “or” before it) were omitted.
Section 26(5) of NPA 2017	In Schedule 19, paragraph 37(1) is to be read as if paragraph (b) were omitted.
Section 26(6) of NPA 2017	Schedule 19 is to be read as if paragraph 53 were omitted.
Section 26(7) of NPA 2017	Schedule 19 is to be read as if paragraph 27 were omitted.

Paragraph 5(3) of Schedule 18 to LURA 2023	In Schedule 19, paragraph 20(2) is to be read as if paragraph (c) (and the “or” before it) were omitted.

Evidence at hearings and local inquiries: transitory modifications

23 (1) Until section 369 of the principal Act comes into force, the references to that section in the provisions mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) are to be read as references to section 250(2) and (3) of the Local Government Act 1972 (c. 70).

(2) The provisions are—

(a) section 28F(11A) of the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 (c. 69) (inserted by paragraph 178(c) of Schedule 2 to this Act),

- (b) section 28L(13A) of that Act (inserted by paragraph 180(c) of Schedule 2 to this Act), and
- (c) paragraph 10A(3A) of Schedule 15 to that Act (inserted by paragraph 187(a) of Schedule 2 to this Act).
