2025 No. (W. )

AGRICULTURE, WALES

The Sheep Carcass (Classification and Price Reporting) (Wales) Regulations 2025

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations are made using powers in the Agriculture (Wales) Act 2023 (asc 4) and provide for mandatory classification and price reporting of sheep carcasses by larger approved slaughterhouses.

Regulation 3 sets out the approved slaughterhouses to which these Regulations apply (“regulated slaughterhouses”), and regulation 4 provides that those slaughterhouses must give notice to the Welsh Ministers to that effect.

Regulation 5 and Schedule 1 stipulate the classification requirements which must be met by regulated slaughterhouses in respect of most of the carcasses which they process. Classification requirements are to be carried out at the time that the carcasses are being weighed as set out in regulation 10, once the carcasses have been allocated a kill number under regulation 8 and have been presented in accordance with regulation 7.

Regulation 9 requires that each classified carcass is to be labelled with the information set out in that regulation.

Regulations 11 and 12 set out all the information which must be recorded by regulated slaughterhouses for each carcass which is classified, and regulation 13 provides that the information contained in specified records must be communicated to the supplier of the animal from which the carcass was obtained.

Part 3 sets out a system of control of classification through licences and authorisations.

Part 4 and Schedule 2 set out the procedure by which the Welsh Ministers authorise the use of “automated” classification methods for use in regulated slaughterhouses.

Part 5 requires the operator of a slaughterhouse to ensure that market price information is reported to a person authorised by the Welsh Ministers.

Part 6 contains provisions which restrict how those who handle the market data provided by slaughterhouses can process and disclose that information.

Part 7 contains enforcement provisions. Regulations 25 and 26 give authorised officers powers of entry and associated powers to allow them to check for, and gather evidence of, breaches of these Regulations. Under regulations 27 and 28 compliance notices and monetary penalty notices may be served in respect of breaches identified, and an appeal mechanism to the First-tier Tribunal is put in place by regulation 29.

The Welsh Ministers’ Code of Practice on the carrying out of Regulatory Impact Assessments was considered in relation to these Regulations. As a result, a regulatory impact assessment has been prepared as to the likely costs and benefits of complying with these Regulations. A copy can be obtained from Welsh Government, Cathays Park, Cardiff, CF10 3NQ and is published on www.gov.wales.

SCHEDULE 2 Regulation 19

Authorisation test process for automated classification methods and minimum requirements for test results

PART 1

Authorisation Test Process

1. An automated classification method which has been submitted for authorisation must be tested in the classification of a sample of at least 1200 carcasses, each of which must also be visually classified by every member of a panel which has been convened for this purpose by the Welsh Ministers.

2. The panel convened by the Welsh Ministers for the authorisation test must be composed of an uneven number of at least five experts in classification of carcasses of sheep.

3. During the test process the members of the panel must use the subdivisions of classes of conformation and fat cover referred to in regulation 5(3).

4. The members of the panel must work independently and anonymously of each other.

5. The Welsh Ministers must also nominate a coordinator of the authorisation test process, who must—

- (a) not be part of the panel,
- (b) maintain independence with regard to the panel, and
- (c) in the opinion of the Welsh Ministers, have satisfactory technical knowledge to carry out this role.

6. The coordinator nominated under paragraph 5 must—

- (a) monitor the work of the panel convened under paragraph 1,
- (b) ensure that each panel member carries out the visual classifications of the carcasses independently and anonymously from the other panel members,
- (c) verify that each carcass classified is—
  - (i) obtained from a sheep aged less than 12 months at the time of slaughter, and
  - (ii) presented in the same way as all other carcasses used in the test process, that being in accordance with the requirements of regulation 7,
- (d) collect—
  - (i) the classification results of the members of the panel, and
  - (ii) the classification results obtained by using the automated classification method, for each carcass,

- (e) ensure that, during the entire duration of the authorisation test, the classification results obtained by using the automated classification method are not available to any member of the panel or to any other interested party,
- (f) make a decision whether, for objective reasons they must specify, any carcasses should be excluded from the sample to be used for the analysis,
- (g) ensure that the analysis sample includes a spread of carcasses which is representative of the variety of sheep slaughtered in regulated slaughterhouses,
- (h) send the results to the Welsh Ministers and the data analyst-statistician nominated under paragraph 7, and
- (i) send to the Welsh Ministers a report on how the test was conducted, including information on how the carcasses were presented during the test process.

7. The Welsh Ministers must nominate an independent data analyst-statistician for each test, who must—

- (a) analyse the results of the test collected by the coordinator to determine the accuracy of the automated classification method in accordance with Part 2 of this Schedule, and
- (b) communicate the results of the analysis conducted under sub-paragraph (a) to the Welsh Ministers.

PART 2

Minimum requirements for test results

8. If the automated classification method fails to generate any classification result for 5% or more of the carcasses within the test sample, it must be considered to have failed the authorisation test process.

9. If paragraph 8 does not apply, the accuracy of the automated classification method must be assessed according to the following paragraphs in this Part.

10. For each carcass within the test sample, the median of the visual results of all the members of the panel must be considered as the correct classification result for that carcass.

11. Results generated by the automated classification method must, for each carcass, be compared to the correct classification result.

12. The accuracy of the automated classification method must be established by allocating points to each classification result generated by that method, based on its degree of deviation from the correct classification result for both conformation and fat cover in accordance with Table 1 below.

Table 1

Deviation from correct classification result	Conformation	Fat cover
No deviation	10	10
Deviation of 1 class subdivision (up or down)	6	9
Deviation of 2 class subdivisions (up or down)	-9	0
Deviation of 3 class subdivisions (up or down)	-27	-13
Deviation of	-48	-30

more than 3
class subdivisions
(up or down)

13. To pass the authorisation test, the automated classification method must achieve at least 60% of the maximum number of points under Table 1 for both conformation and fat cover.

14. In addition to the requirement under paragraph 13, the classifications by the automated classification method must be within the limits specified in Table 2 below.

Table 2

	Conformation	Fat Cover
Bias	$\pm 0.30$	$\pm 0.60$
Slope of the regression line	$1 \pm 0.15$	$1 \pm 0.30$
